

guard over blower

The image shows the exterior of a white RV with a custom-built white enclosure for a stove. A black vent pipe extends from the enclosure to the roof. Red arrows point from text labels to various components: a guard over the blower, the motor housing and suction elbow, the automotive blower motor, and the stove cap with intake holes. The RV is parked outdoors with trees and an American flag in the background.

motor housing and
suction elbow

automotive blower
motor

stove cap with 1/2
holes drilled in it for
intake with inside
bug screen